

Prof. Dr. Burak Saltoğlu

Risktürk - Partner

As a cofounder of Risktürk, Burak Saltoğlu consulted many institutions including, Akbank, Ak Portfoy, BDDK, BNP-TEB, Garanti Bankası, HSBC, Reuters, Vakıfbank, YKB on credit risk, market risk, ALM, derivative pricing, operational risk and fixed income. His publications presented at the famous international journals of Japan and the World Economy, Journal of Forecasting, International Journal of Business and Economics, Applied Financial Economics. He had presentations about Financial Econometrics and Risk Management in England, USA, Canada, Portugal, Japan, Sweden and Italy internationally, also many topics as derivative pricing, ALM, risk management domestically in Turkey. His main research interests consists of financial econometrics, quantitative finance, financial risk. After holding a Bachelor of Science degree from Middle East Technical University and an M.S. degree from University of Guelph, he completed his Ph.D. in University of Essex and granted as a Professor of Economics. He is also giving M.S. lectures in Bilgi and Bogazici Universities about risk management.

Harold Dorbin, CFCC - Marsh

Senior Vice President

Harold has consulted on projects in six continents, leading numerous domestic and international claims to resolution via negotiation, mediation, lawsuit and arbitration. Harold has spent 20 years working for owners and contractors providing services such as plant operations, project management, construction management, process design, environmental and safety engineering, multimedia permit writing, regulatory compliance administration, rule negotiation and testimony as well as consulting and HAZOP chairmanship. In the risk management arena, Harold's experience includes project governance reviews, claims prevention, project risk assessment, project risk management training/audits and the development of corporation-wide risk management programs for multi-national corporations and public and private entities. He has performed project analyses at the project conception, feasibility study, project tender development, estimate, tender submittal, contract negotiation, execution and claim stages. His risk management engagement and training expertise includes design of corporate-wide project governance programs, work scope preparation, claims prevention, project risk management, scope management, design/procurement procedure analysis and construction procedure analysis.

Julia Graham – FERMA

Chairman

Julia is the Director of Risk Management and Insurance at DLA Piper where she is responsible for the development and delivery of the firm's Risk Management strategy and framework and the firm's risk financing solutions. The firm takes an enterprise approach to managing risk. Risk financing solutions include the design and procurement of insurance and associated risk financing needs and claims management for all classes of risk including professional liabilities, property, casualty, health and benefits. Julia is a member of the firm's Risk Committee and a Director of the firm's captive insurance company. Julia has over 35 years' experience in managing risk, compliance and insurance. She is a Fellow of the Chartered Insurance Institute, a Chartered Insurer and for the last four years a Judge at the British Insurance Awards. She is also a fellow of the Business Continuity Institute, a member of the Working Group and Technical Committee and Liaison for FERMA on the development of ISO 31000 the risk management standard. She is co-chair of the Risk Panel for the Managing Partner Forum, a past Chairman of AIRMIC and FERMA President since October 2013.

Wolfango Piccoli – Teneo

Managing Partner

Prior to joining Teneo, Dr. Piccoli was the director of the London office of Eurasia Group, and head of the firm's Europe practice. As such, he was responsible for identifying, tracking and analyzing political events and dynamics in Europe which impact on the activities of financial, corporate and government clients. In addition, he led the team covering Turkey and had primary responsibility for the coverage of Greece, Italy and the UK. Previously, he was an assistant professor in the department of international politics at the University of Wales, Aberystwyth, where he taught courses on international security and intelligence. Previously, Dr. Piccoli was an Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC) post-doctoral fellow at the same university. Dr. Piccoli co-authored a book entitled 'Turkey at the Crossroads: Ottoman Legacies and a Greater Middle East,' which was later translated and published in Turkish. He is also a frequent commentator on European politics in major media outlets, including the International Herald Tribune, the Financial Times, CNN International, CNBC-Europe, Bloomberg, Business Week and Al-Jazeera English. Dr. Piccoli holds a Ph.D. in International Politics from the University of Wales, Aberystwyth, and an M.A. in International Relations from the University of Bilkent (Ankara). He received his bachelor's degree from the University of Bologna.

